WHEREAS, Respondent Robert Loncarevic d/b/a Innovative Financial Solutions and Acquisitions on the 9th day of June, 2008, executed a certain Stipulation to Enter Consent Order of Prohibition (the "Stipulation"), which hereby is incorporated by reference herein.

WHEREAS, by means of the Stipulation, Respondent has admitted to the jurisdiction of the Secretary of State and service of the Notice of Hearing of the Secretary of State, Securities Department, dated December 19, 2007, in this proceeding (the "Notice") and Respondent has consented to the entry of this Consent Order of Dismissal ("Consent Order").

WHEREAS, by means of the Stipulation, the Respondent acknowledged, without admitting or denying the truth thereof, that the following allegations contained in the Notice of Hearing shall be adopted as the Secretary of State's Findings of Fact:

1. That Robert Loncarevic, ("Respondent") is an individual whose last known addresses are 28 E. Jackson, Bldg. #10 C93, Chicago, Illinois 60604, and 6461 W. Warner Ave., Unit #510, Chicago, Illinois 60634. Robert Loncarevic does business as Innovative Financial Solutions and Acquisitions.

2. That Innovative Financial Solutions and Acquisitions (or collectively with Loncarevic, "Respondents"), is the business identity used by Loncarevic in engaging in the business of acting as agent, broker, or principal in the business of offering, selling, buying and selling, or otherwise dealing or trading in securities issued by another person.
3. That in or around 2005 – 2006, Respondents placed an advertisement in the Serbian Yellow Pages Phone Book. Illinois Investor #1 responded to the advertisement and met with Respondents at Loncarevic's home office ("Home Office") located at 6461 W. Warner Ave., Unit #510, Chicago, Illinois 60634.
4. That at that meeting, Loncarevic discussed with Illinois Investor #1 various securities investment options, and recommended that Illinois Investor #1 invest in shares of Universal Exchange Corporation ("Universal") and Bluko Corporation ("Bluko").
5. That on or around January 9, 2006, Illinois Investor #1 gave Respondents a check in the amount of $20,200 for the purchase of shares in Universal and Bluko.
6. That on or around February 3, 2006, Loncarevic sent Illinois Investor #1 a letter stating that Illinois Investor #1 had purchased 10,000 shares of Universal. The letter further states that the shares were purchased at $1.00 per share as a corporate offering and are considered very risky in nature, and that Illinois Investor #1 will be informed of events and happenings as they manifest over time.
7. That on or around February 3, 2006, Respondents sent a second letter to Illinois Investor #1 which stated there was a small possibility that the company (Universal) might not accept Illinois Investor #1's funds because they were not invested in any other product offered by Universal, and that Respondents would not be at fault if this should manifest in any way.
8. That on or around April 24, 2006, Respondent sent a third letter to Illinois Investor #1 which stated that they had invested $10,000 for Illinois Investor #1 in 10,000 shares of Universal at $1.00 par value. The letter further stated that the attached stock certificate reflected the ownership of 20,000 Universal shares in the name of Loncarevic, however, 10,000 of those shares were invested for and on behalf of Illinois Investor #1, who therefore owns 10,000 shares of Universal. The letter also states that any profits and dividends shall be divided as follows: Loncarevic shall receive 10% of any profit/dividends, and Illinois Investor #1 shall receive 90% of any profit/dividends.
9. That Respondents also stated in the April 24, 2006, letter that Respondents received an additional $10,000 on January 9, 2006, from Illinois Investor #1 to invest in 10,000 shares of Bluko. The letter continued by stating that if Respondents were unable to purchase the Bluko shares by May 10, 2006, Respondents would return the $10,000 to Illinois Investor #1 by May 17, 2006.

10. That Respondents invested approximately only $3,000 of Illinois Investor #1's $10,000 in Bluko, and converted the balance to their own use and benefit.
11. That in or around 2005 – 2006, Respondents placed an advertisement in the Free Shopper Ad Paper. Illinois Investor #2 responded to the advertisement, and met with Respondents at Loncarevic's Home Office.
12. That at that meeting, Loncarevic discussed with Illinois Investor #2 various securities investment options, and recommended that Illinois Investor #2 invest $15,000 in shares of Par Three Financial.com ("Par Three"). Loncarevic told Illinois Investor #2 that if he invested $15,000 in shares of Par Three, Illinois Investor #2 would get 2% per month or 24% annual return on his investment. Loncarevic told Illinois Investor #2 that he would receive a check for $300 each month in return for his investment in Par Three shares.
13. That on or around May 11, 2005, Illinois Investor #2 gave Respondents a check in the amount of $15,000 for the purchase of shares in Par Three.
14. That Illinois Investor #2 has not received any of the promised $300 monthly checks from Respondents, nor has he ever received the return of his principal $15,000 investment in shares of Par Three.

Failure to Register

15. That shares of Universal, Bluko, and Par Three are all securities issued by another person and not by Respondents.
16. That Respondents' conduct, as set forth in paragraphs 3 through 5 and 11 through 13 above, constitutes the offer and sale of a security and the activities of a Dealer and a Salesperson, pursuant to Sections 2.5a, 2.5, 2.1, 2.7, and 2.9 of the Act.
17. That Respondents failed to register with the Secretary of State as a securities Salesperson and Dealer as required by the Act and that as a result he was not registered pursuant to Section 8 of the Act prior to his offer to purchase or sell securities issued by another person on behalf of the Illinois Investor in the State of Illinois.
18. That Section 12.A of the Act provides it shall be a violation of the provisions of this Act for any person to offer or sell any security except in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
19. That Section 12.C of the Act provides that it shall be a violation of the provisions of this Act for any person to act as a dealer or salesperson unless registered as such, where such registration is required, under the provisions of this Act.

21. That by virtue of the foregoing, Respondents violated Section 12.A, C, & D of the Act.

Fraud

22. That notwithstanding Respondents' assurances and confirmations, Respondents did not purchase shares of Universal and Bluko for Illinois Investor #1. Instead, Respondents converted Illinois Investor #1's $20,200, and used it for his own benefit.
23. That Respondents told Illinois Investor #1 she had invested in shares of common stock, and failed to notify her that the funds would be invested for Respondents' benefit and not for the Investor's benefit.
